The local governments of Quezon City and Valenzuela have started to inoculate workers after work hours so they will not have to skip work to get their anticoronavirus jabs. "Bakuna Nights" in Quezon City was rolled out on Wednesday night and will be held from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. Bakuna Nights will run until Saturday and will expand to other sites, depending on the availability of vaccine supply, according to Quezon City's Task Force Vax to Normal cochair Joseph Juico. Valenzuela City also opened on Wednesday its after-hours shift vaccination schedule, which also runs from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. On Monday, another vaccination site at Justice Eliezer Delos Santos National High School in Barangay Ugong will be converted into a vaccination site for industrial workers. The site will implement a shifting schedule on Wednesday.
