Quezon City Councilor Emmanuel Banjo A. Pilar was named best in legislation, good governance and humanitarian service at the 9th Asia Pacific Luminare Awards recently.

Pilar, who represents District 6, expressed gratitude to the awards group and dedicated the honor to his wife, Representative Marivic Co-Pilar, their children and constituents. The councilor recently filed a resolution commending Deo Balbuena, known as "Diwata" online, for his contributions to the Filipino community and entrepreneurial spirit.

The Asia Pacific Luminare Awards recognizes outstanding individuals and companies across the region.
