MAYOR BELMONTE SAYS 15 QC PUBLIC SCHOOLS TO DEFER OPENING OF CLASSES DUE TO 'CARINA'

Manila Standard · 28 Jul 2024 · A2 · By Maricel V. Cruz

A TOTAL of 143 public elementary and high schools in Quezon City will be ready for the opening of classes on Monday, July 29.

Several public schools, however, will defer their opening of classes in the aftermath of Typhoon Carina, according to Mayor Joy Belmonte.

Based on Division Memorandum No. 778, Series of 2024, Belmonte stated that classes in 15 public elementary and high schools will not begin on Monday (July 29) due to various reasons.

Classes in Sto. Cristo Elementary School, Balumbato Elementary School, Cong. Reynaldo Calalay Elementary School, Sinagtala Elementary School, San Francisco Elementary School, Dalupan Elementary School, Diosdado P. Macapagal Elementary School, Rosa L. Susano Elementary School, Odelco Elementary School, Josefa Jara Martinez High School, and Sta. Lucia High School will start only on August 1 (Thursday) as they are currently being used as evacuation centers.

Belmonte added that Betty Go Belmonte Elementary School, Masambong Elementary School, Masambong High School, and Sergio Osmena Sr. High School sustained damages that needed immediate repair and can only begin classes on August 5 (Monday).
