FILIPINISM

Filipinism is the union of all these choicest elements of a basic Oriental culture with two representative Occidental civilizations, all purified through the crucible of our long years of trial so as to come to a working formula of right nationalism and right nationalization. By reason of the process of growth which we have yet to undergo, a lasting definition of the term Filipinism may not possibly be made at this time. I foresee, however, that the essence and the reality of Filipinism will be the combination of the best and greatest in the Orient with the greatest and best in the Occident of the Latin and the Anglo-Saxon.

Rafael Palma

I AM A FILIPINO

I am a Filipino – inheritor of a glorious past, hostage of the uncertain future. As such I must prove equal to a twofold task – the task of meeting my responsibility to the past, and the task of performing my obligation to the future.

* * *

I am a Filipino. In my blood runs the immortal seed of heroes – seed that flowered down the centuries in deeds of courage and defiance. In my viens yet pulses the same hot blood that sent Lapu-Lapu to battle against the first invader of this land, that nerved Lakandula in the combat against the alien foe, that drove Diego Silang and Dagohoy into rebellion against the foreign oppressor.

That seed is immortal. It is the selfsame seed that flowered in the heart of Jose Rizal that morning in Bagumbayan when a volley of shots put an end to all that was mortal of him and made his spirit deathless forever, the same that flowered in the hearts of Bonifacio in Balintawak, of Gregorio del Pilar at Tirad Pass, of Antonio Luna At Calumpit; that bloomed in flowers of frustration in the sad heart of Emilio Aguinaldo at Palanan, and yet burst forth royally again in the proud heart of Manuel L. Quezon when he stood at last on the threshold of ancient Malacanan Palace, in the symbolic act of possession and racial vindication.

Carlos P. Romulo

EAGLEISM

... Eagleism is Filipinism

1. Eagleism is not found in any old or modern lexicon. it is a word peculiar to The Fraternal Order of Eagles (Philippine Eagles) which has genuinely evolved as a socio-civic fraternalism.

The fraternal "ism" in the Philippine Eagles has sprung from its declaration of policies and objectives seeking to "establish a strong bond of brotherhood and fraternal ties among the members as keystone to service". It is an institutional declaration clearly articulated in its guiding principle which is SERVICE THROUGH STRONG BROTHERHOOD.

The letter A in the word Eagles was deliberately crafted and shall mean "Animated primarily by a strong bond of brotherhood and fraternal ties". The fraternal "ism" shall be achieved by encouraging "exchange of business, professional, cultural, social and other opportunities and advantages for the mutual benefits of the members" and the civic fraternity.

In essence, Eagleism is fraternalism or that state of relationship characteristic of brothers. In the Philippine Eagles, the members must have primordially developed a deep sense of brotherhood among them. The primacy of their relationship is brotherhood.

2. Eagleism is humanitarianism which shall be an ethical commitment or concern for human welfare or relations in general and shall be expressed in philanthropic activities or interest in social reforms. This is expressed in the declaration of goals and objectives of the Philippine Eagles saying that it shall be "enlightened and innovative humanitarian" and committing that it shall "be interested in promoting... social legislation and provide forum for (its) discussion."

3. Eaglesism is civic national "ism". In the declaration of goals and objectives forged in 1979, the Philippine Eagles declares that it shall be "emblazed with intense mission of service to country, its people and its community". The declaration has been reiterated in the Eagles Constitution now part of the Eagles Magna CartaCarta.

Civic national "ism" shall mean that the Philippine Eagles "shall find and give its humanitarian service, usefulness and relevance to the Philippine community and its people" and "shall pursue vigilantly and intensely its personal humanitarian service geared to give maximum benefit to the needy sectors of the Philippines community and its people".

Civic national "ism" in the context of Eagleism is neither self "ism" nor bigot "ism".

It is neither an isolation from the rest of the civic world or of the many civic groups in the country's midst. In fact, Eagleism is humanitarianism whose concern is for the human race.

The civic national "ism" in Eagleism is a system of priority which recognized that it may not "outsoar" its humanitarian endeavors beyond its Philippine environs unless it shall be able to give first its service, usefulness, and relevance to the Philippine community. It seeks to practice charity at home before it shall reach out.

4. Eagleism is something more. In the declaration of policies and objectives of the Philippine Eagles, it says that the Philippine Eagles shall be:

E - Enlightened and innovative humanitarian
A - Animated primarily by a strong bond of brotherhood and fraternal ties
G - God-loving, non-sectarian
L - Law-abiding, liberty-oriented, non-political E - Emblazed with intense mission of
S - Service to country, its people and community

5. Finally, Eagleism "shall mean reliability of the Eagles commitment to a brother Eagle" exemplified in what the Philippine Eagles institutionally calls the Alalayang Agila. In such Alalayan, the Eagles "shall have shared each other's problems or moments of importance and shall have expanded and enhanced their sense and spirit of brotherhood". It is perhaps synonymous to bayanihan but it "shall transcend the mere supportive sense of helping a brother Eagle".

MESSAGE

MALACAÑAN PALACE
MANILA

My most cordial greetings and best wishes to The Fraternal Order of Eagles (Philippine Eagles) as you hold your 15th Induction of the Officers on January 28, 1995.

If we are to achieve our goals of change and transformation, we must awaken and open our eyes to the need to reinforce our bonds among ourselves and with our nation. In fact, unless we learn to share, care and dare for our country and our people, we cannot move any further or accomplish anything worthwhile and sustainable.

I am thus pleased to know that your theme, "Progress and Unity Through Strong Brotherhood", speaks of the kind of sharing, caring and daring that is needed to build a new Philippines. May this inspire you all to unite and join hands with the rest of our people to give greater strength to the gains we have achieved so far, and to sustain the momentum of growth and change that our collective labors have already yielded.

MABUHAY KAYONG LAHAT!

Profile of Guest of Honor and Speaker

JOSE T. ALMONTE was born on 25 November 1931, in Estancia, Malinao, Albay.

He was a member of PMA Class 1956, and a candidate for a Doctorate in Political Science from the University of the Philippines, 1973.

He served with distinction as chief of the counter-intelligence detachment of the Philippine Civic Action Group to Vietnam from 1966 to 1969. He created conditions that prevented PHILCAGV from being engaged in actual combat by attaching himself to the Vietcong High Command. For this feat, he was awarded the Distinguished Conduct Star for Gallantry--the Philippines' second-highest military medal.

A LEADER OF RAM

In 1986 he joined the secret Reform the Armed Forces Movement (RAM) and became one of its five-man core group, the Movement for National Unity, which initiated the February 1986 Revolution.

In late 1986 he went on a successful mission in Switzerland, to find the secret bank accounts of deposed President Marcos, his family and cronies.

He retired as a Brigadier General from the Armed Forces in 1986, after having served as its Deputy Chief of Staff for Civilian-Military Relations (J-7). He then became Commissioner of the Economic Intelligence and Investigation Bureau, Department of Finance.

On July 1, 1992, he was appointed by newly elected President Fidel V. Ramos as Presidential Security Adviser and concurrently Director General of the National Security Council.

SECRETARY JOSE T. ALMONTE
Presidential Security Adviser and Director-General
National Security Council
Republic of the Philippines

EARLY CAREER

From 1962 to 1965 he was the Assistant Chief of Intelligence, Presidential Security Unit, assigned to protect President Diosdado Macapagal and his family.

He was also held positions in civilian Government offices. He was Special Assistant to the Under-secretary of National Defense, and Executive Assistant to the Executive Secretary, Office of the President.

In this latter capacity, he helped to formulate strategies and policies reorienting Philippine foreign policy, and to oversee their initial implementation. He also helped lay the groundwork that preceded the establishment of diplomatic relations with both the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China.

In internal security affairs, he participated actively in discussions with the secessionist Moro National Liberation front in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia.

He also helped establish institutions to guide the country's social, political and economic development. Among these were the Philippine Center for Advanced Studies and its Institute of Islamic Studies; the Philippine Amanah Bank; the Southern Philippines Development Authority; the Muslim regional government in the Southern Philippines, the shari'a courts; and the Maharlika Village.

Between 1974 and 1979 he was Full Professor and Dean of the Institute of Strategic Studies, and Vice Chancellor of the Philippines Center for Advanced Studies at the University of the Philippines.

MESSAGE

THE FRATERNAL ORDER OF Eagles
(PHILIPPINE Eagles)

I am humbled by your support and trust. Although only time can tell whether I will prove worthy of it, under my administration there is one thing you can be sure of -- ACTION.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles (Philippine Eagles) has its roots on the principle of taking a stand and doing something about it. It may have its share of lapses and error of judgment but it has never shirked from its social responsibilities. Passivity and buck-passing are not and will never be the trademarks of an Eagle

In all issues as far-ranging as ecology, health care, backyard industry, farming, peace and order, education, sports, cleanliness program, barangay upliftment, aid to the underprevelidged, Eagles have always been in the thick of it, doing what they perceive has to be done. In all aspects of community life, the Order is there.

This course we shall continue to pursue, with greater vigor and missionary zeal. It is my firm beleif that in this pivotal time of our history every little act of leadership and sacrifice on our part can spell the difference between our country being able to join that company of economic tigers in Asia by the year 2000 as envisioned by our beloved President Fidel V. Ramos or being mired in messy recriminations.

The choice is ours.

MESSAGE

THE FRATERNAL ORDER OF Eagles
(PHILIPPINE Eagles)

I convey my fervent fraternal greetings and felicitations to the new set of officers of the Philippine Eagles for the Eagle Year 1995 who will be inducted on January 28.

Every national induction brings new milestone and fresh vision to our young socio-civic Fraternity. This is because new leaders with fresh ideals emerge after one another and each leader has his own style and vision of leading his organization.

We are fortunate that for the Eagle Year 1995, our Fraternity will be led by no less than a very able successor who is prepared for the position and who has vastly seasoned in leadership in many other endeavors.

Again, my congratulations

JAOQUIN T. LU
Immediate Past National President

EAGLES SUPREME TRIBUNAL

MAXIMIANO ASUNCION
Supreme Chancellor

BEN COBARDE
Chancellor

FLORENCIO ANCHUVAS
Associate Chancellor

The Eagles Supreme Tribunal constitutes the third branch in the power trinity in the Philippine Eagles. The Tribunal is "the supreme arbiter of all internal problems and controversies" in the Philippine Eagles. Its decision involving internal matters and conflicts in the Fraternity are final and binding to the members and recourse to the courts of justice of the land on those matters is taboo under the Eagles Ethical Code more popularly known as the Eagles Delicadeza and Moral Code of Ethics.

The National Executive Committee (NEXECOM)

Among the institutional bodies in the Philippine Eagles given vast residual powers by the Eagles Magna Carta although not constinuously harnessed operationally is the national executive committee popularly known as the NEXECOM.

Some residual legislative powers have been vested by the Eagles Magna Carta in the NEXECOM. It is both an executive arm and mini-legislative arm of the Philippine Eagles. As a collegial body, it participates in the execution of the policies of the national president. As a mini-legislative body, it "may pass and approve measures for the expedient and orderly administration and operations of the Philippine Eagles" while the national assembly is not in session. In reality, NEXECOM through the national president, may set the over-all activities of the Philippine Eagles.

The NEXECOM shall be composed of the following:

a) The national president;
b) The charter national president and past national presidents;
c) The executive national vice president;
d) The incumbent regional governors of the various regions of the Philippine Eagles;
Eagles;
e) The secretary general;
f) The attorney general;
g) The information secretary;
h) The finance secretary;
i) The national treasurer;
j) The national comptroller; and
k) The executive director of the Philippine Eagles Institute of Leadership (PEIL).
