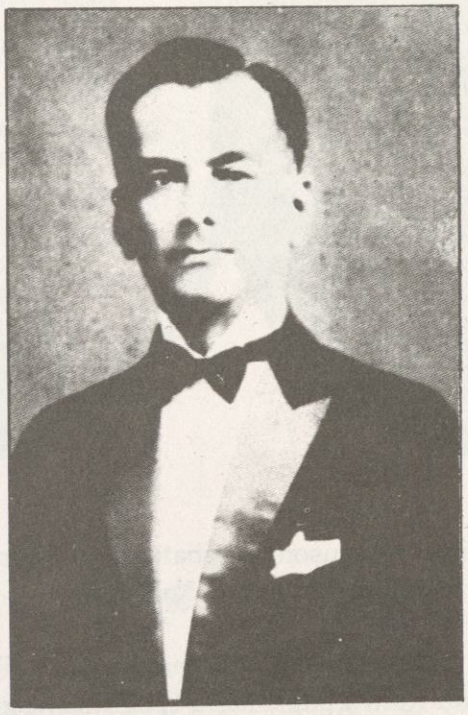
Two vignettes in Quezon's life led to QC's founding



MUCH HAS BEEN told about how Quezon City came into being. Not so many, it is presumed, know what inspired its founding father, the late President Manuel L. Quezon, to nurture the dream of building "a real Filipino metropolis."

There were two incidents in the life of Quezon which sparked his natural love for the poor even more, and galvanized him into action to make his social justice program a reality.

In 1937, a laborer was drowned in the Pasig river while trying to retrieve some logs that had fallen from a barge.

The man's mother lost her case when she sought just compensation from his employer in the Court of First Instance, under Justice Emilio Mapa, who ruled that the laborer's death was "due to his carelessness."

The mother brought the case to the Court of Appeals, which upheld the lower court's action, ruling that there was "no casual connection between the machinery used in the business of the employer and the drifting of the log, and the deceased head courted his own death when he jumped into the river."

The case came to the attention of Quezon when it was elevated by the victim's mother to the Supreme Court. He expressed disillusionment over the decision, describing it "an outrageous injustice," which triggered the brunt of the judiciary as well as some government officials.

Unfazed, Quezon stood by his conviction until the Supreme Court reversed the decision of the two lower courts the following year.

Another incident that sparked Quezon's zeal for social justice was his visit to Mexico in 1938, when its President Lazaro Cardenas was then instituting sweeping reforms in the social and economic conditions of his country.

There, the Filipino leader witnessed how the Mexican president expropriated hectares of landed estates and distributed them to the tenants and the landless. Bridges were built and waterworks were established in communities. Hospitals were put up, too. Cardenas would also personally attend complaints and needs of his people.

Upon his return to Manila, Quezon started implementing his plans to give land and homes to the poor. He established homesites in Koronadal Valley in Davao, and opened up 100,000 hectares of settlements in Isabela for the landless in Northern Luzon.

Quezon then turned his attention to the people in the Manila area. Not long after, with the prodding of friends, he caused the purchase by government of a big tract of land north of Manila. That land would form the original core of what would become Quezon City.

Two incidents, a man of vision, and a time for opening up new frontiers and opportunities. They all conspired to bring forth Mr. Quezon's dream of a "truly Filipino metropolis."

Mensahe

Ipinararating ko ang aking taos-pusong pagbati sa Sangguniang Kabataan Federation of Quezon City sa inyong pagdiriwang ng Linggo ng Kabataan.

Ang tema ng inyong pagdiriwang, "Sama-Samang Tumutugon sa Hamon ng Panahon...Kabataan 2000", ay larawan ng pagkakaisa't pagtitikang kinakailangan upang makamit ang ating matayog na hangarin – "PILIPINAS 2000!!!". Ito ma'y katibayan ng makulay na pangako't pag-asang isinakatawan ng kabataan ng ating bansa.

Bilang kabataan Pilipino, pinakamalaking bahagi kayo ng ating kasalukuyang pamayanan. Dahil dito, maaari kayong magsilbing malakas at positibong puwersa sa pagbabago't pagsulong ng ating bansa. Kung ano ang inyong ipunla sa buhay ng ating bansa'y siya ring aanihin sa kinabukasang hinaharap. At kung ano ang inyong kahihinatnan ay siya ring kahihinatnan ng ating pinakamamahal na Pilipinas.

Kung kaya't, ang inyong nagkakaisang pagtugon sa hamon ng kasalukuyan ay tiyak na makapagbibigay-sigla't lakas sa ating kabansaan. Ganitong uri ng pagkakaisa't pagpupunyagi ang siyang magdadala sa ating lahat sa kaunlaran at kinabukasang "Pilipinas 2000!!!".

MABUHAY ANG KABATAANG PILIPINO!

MABUHAY KAYONG LAHAT!

Message

It is with great pleasure that I greet the Sangguniang Kabataan Federation of Quezon City as you celebrate the National Linggo ng Kabataan Week from December 6 to 12.

Your theme, "Sama-samang Tumutugon sa Hamon ng Panahon...Kabataan 2000", gives an ample description of the goals of your group, in particular the promotion of the youth and its role in helping the nation achieve the goals of "Philippines 2000".

Let us therefore work together towards the realization of the government and the people's goal of guiding our country to becoming another Asian tiger and a newly-industrialized country by the year 2000.

Again, my best wishes and Mabuhay Kayong Lahat.

Message

I wish to congratulate the SANGGUNIANG KABATAAN FEDERATION of Quezon City on the celebration of Linggo ng Kabataan from December 6-12, 1993 with its theme: "Sama-samang Tumutugon sa Hamon ng Panahon-Kabataan 2000"

Indeed, the challenges for the realization of our goals for Philippine 2000 offer far-ranging opportunities for youth participation in national efforts for development and progress. Youth involvement in many aspects of civic and governmental undertakings is necessary for the attainment of greater understanding of the processes and dynamics that accompany a nation's striving for the fulfillment of our aspirations for a better life.

There are several activities in which involvement of the youth can be meaningful and beneficial. Your participation especially in community development and in environmental concerns can provide the necessary linchpin for their successful realization and accomplishment.

We look forward to continued cooperation from the youth sector as together we meet our common goals for the upliftment of the conditions of our people.

CHARITO L. PLANAS
Vice Mayor

Message

In the preparation of the Linggo ng Kabataan, I have been witness to the fact that my co-organizers spent immeasurable time and effort in planning this singular, most anticipated and ultimate major activity of the year, finally coming out with a very comprehensive program of activities focused on the theme "Sama-samang Tumutugon sa Hamon ng Panahon...Kabataan 2000" and which, together with interesting topics, that promises to be altogether informative, inspirational and excitingly enjoyable.

As we celebrate the occasion, let us give ourselves a chance to renew our commitment to serve, mingle with our friends and new ones. Also, let us reflect on the passed months and evaluate our individual performances, identify our strengths and weaknesses and share ourselves, information and ideas thru strengthening further the spirit of teamwork and friendship. Together and one in the realization of our leaders and followers in the Sangguniang Kabataan, let us bind our ACTS so memories of our legacy can forever be remembered.

To my partners in Community Service/ fellow QC Youths, colleagues in Gov't Service who have unselfishly contributed to this activity my wholehearted thanks.

Lastly, I tip my hat off most particularly to BJ, Xerxes, Joy, Alma, Sheila, Joel, Jeng, Marvin, Kaye, Leslie, Febe, Jane, Tibo, Estre, Mike, Chow and Ellaine, without them this activity may never be.

Again, in behalf of the QC Sangguniang Federation, thanks you and may God bless all of you.

PAX!

The Presidential Proclamation No. 99 and the provision of the local government Code Section 439, Chapter 10, declared the Second Week of December as the National Linggo ng Kabataan, marks the re-birth of the new Filipino youth.

The Sangguniang Kabataan Federation of Quezon City has succesfully done its part in spearheading the celebration by initiating a week-long activities designed to promote the significance of youth in the community and in nation building.

In this regard, allow me to greet you all, the men and women behind this successful and monumental event. Congratulations and more power!

Kasamang tumututugon sa Hamon ng Panahon ng Kabataan sa Dekada 2000!

Message

As a diction heralds, "A TASK WITHOUT A VISION IS DRUDGERY; A VISION WITHOUT A TASK IS A DREAM, BUT A TASK WITH A VISION IS VICTORY!" Our vision in the ederation is invariably crystal clear–youth empowerment ingrained with a pervading sense of disillusionment and unrest on youth, the footpath is long, winding and tedious. Nonetheless, a journey to a thousand miles begins with one step. The first step to empower them is to get them involved!

In observance of the National Linggo ng Kabataan, the preparatory committee puts its best foot forward to design, mobilize and implement a roster of city-wide activities that rebound to the benefit of no other than the youth themselves. It was an insurmountable task to mount filled with multitude of self-sacrifice – all the committees deserve a warm accolade for a laudable job. Let us all laugh and be merry! This is our week! And enjoy it, WE MUST!

Message

It is indeed with great honor and privelege that I greet the organizers and participants of the "Linggo ng Kabataan" celebration in Quezon City, with it's timely theme: "Sama-samang Tumutugon sa Hamon ng Panahon...Kabataan 2000" this December 6-12, 1993.

This is an opportune time for the youth to show it's tremendous potential in the field of public service. May this experience further enlighten and broaden their understanding on how the city government works.

I would like to encourage my fellow participants and their counterparts to make the best of this experience, and likewise learn from each other.

Lastly, I congratulate the Sangguniang Kabataan Federation, headed by Councilor Wencerom Benedict C. Lagumbay, for making this "Linggo ng Kabataan" celebration possible. May the SK have more programs to come and may you be successful in all your undertakings.

Congratulations and God Bless!!!

Message

It is indeed a great honor for me to extend my best wishes and congratulations to all of you in the completion of our Youth Week celebration.

This annual undertaking is a very significant event and experience which is geared towards social awareness and community involvement and brings to mind the youth's commitment to the public. It enhances the vital role of the youth in the upliftment of the welfare of the present generation and the next generation too in our democratic society.

As we think of our rights let us also be aware of our responsibilities and now we are to start for a new chapter of challenges in forming the alliance.

To the Sangguniang Kabataan Federation and to the Hon. Wencerom Benedict C. Lagumbay, my sincere thanks and gratitude for making this undertaking possible. You've done a great job and I do hope you'll continue what you've started for the youth who are the future leaders of our nation.

To my fellow youth officials, let us continue to strive for the betterment of our community. What is important and worth remembering is our concerted efforts . As they say, let accomplishments speak so as to achieve meaning and fulfillment of success.

May God Bless us all!

Quezon City SK Federation president, nanawagan para sa masiglang pakilahok

NANAWAGAN SI QUEZON CITY COUNCILOR Wencerom Benedict C. Lagumbay, presidente ng QC Sangguniang Kabataan Federation, sa mga kabataan sa siyudad na puspusang lumahok sa pagdiriwang ng Linggo ng Kabataan sa Disyembre 6 - 12.

Sinabi ni Lagumbay na ang isang linggong pagdiriwang ng Linggo ng Kabataan ay magkakaroon ng katampukan sa eleksiyon ng boy and girl city officials sa iba't ibang institutionns, pagkikilala sa mga outstanding youth organizations at ng youth solidarity night.

Si Wencerom ay anak ni Konsehal Eufemio Lagumbay ng third district at siyang youth sector representative sa Quezon city council.

Sinabi ng batambatang konsehal na pinili ng QC SK Ferederation bilang tema ng taong pagdiriwang sa Linggo ng Kabataan ang "sama-samang Tumugon sa Hamon ng Panahon...Kabataan 2000"

Pinuri rin ni Lagumbay si Pangulong Ramos sa pagkadeklara ng huli sa Youth Week sa ilalim ng Proclamation No. 56. Sinabi niya na ang naturang aksiyon ay pagkilala sa papel ng mga kabataan na nation-building.

"Malaking bagay ang okasyong ito sa pagbibigaydiin sa kahalagahan ng pag promote sa pagapaunlad sa kabataan," sabi pa ni Konsehal Lagumbay.

Inihayag din ni Wencerom na ang youth solidarity night ay nakatakdang ganapin sa Disyembre 10 at maaaring ito ay pinakamalaking pagtitipon ng mga kabataan na magaganap sa siyudad.

Sa pamamagitan ng pagtitipong ito, aniya, maipapamalas ng mga kabataan ang kani-kanilang talento, gayundin ng mga iba pang performing artists at cultural groups.

Mayor Mathay binati ang SK

BINATI NI QUEZON CITY MAYOR ISMAEL A. Mathay Jr. ang mga QC Sangguniang Kabataan na pinangungunahan ni SK Federation president Wencerom Benedict C. Lagumbay kaugnay sa pagdiriwang ng Linggo ng Kabataan sa Disyembre 6 - 12.

Sinabi ni Mayor Mathay na napapanahon ang pagdiriwang ng natuturang affairs upang matutok ang pansin ng publiko sa mahalagang papel na ginagampanan ng mga kabataan sa siyudad.

Binigyandiin rin ng alkalde, siya ring chairman ng Metro Manila Authority, ang kanyang ganap na suporta sa magagandang layunin at aktibidad na ginagawa ng mga kabataan na ayon sa kanya ay siyang mga lider sa darating na panahon.

Ayon kay Mathay, ang paghahalal at pag-upo ng mga boy and girl officials sa city hall sa loob ng isang linggo ay mabisang paraan para personal na makita at maranasan ng mga kabataan ang pagpapatakbo sa cit government.

Tinutukoy niya rito ang pagkakaroon ng mga counterpart youth officials ng siyudad na makakatuwang nila sa pagpapatakbo sa pamahalaang lungsod sa loob ng isang linggo. (Kabalitaan, July 24,1993)

Sports equipment, hiniling ipagkaloob sa mga barangay

NANAWAGAN ANG ISANG QUEZON CITY COUNCILOR SA pamahalaang lungsod na pagkalooban ang mga barangay ng supply sa sports equipment taun-taon.

Sinabi ni Councilor Wencerom C. Lagumbay, kinatawan ng mga kabataan sa city council, na kailangan tulungan ng goberyno ang mga barangay para sa mas epektibong pagtataguyod ng sports.

Binigyandiin din ni Lagumbay na karamihan ng mga Sangguniang Kabataan, ay nagnanais maglunsad ng sports activities sa kani-kanilang komunidad pero nauudlot ang kanilang mga programa dahil sa kakulagang ng sports equipment.

"Mahalaga ang sports para mailihis ang atensiyon ng mga kabataan sa masasamang bisyo," giit ng 18-anyos na estudyante ng Tourism sa University of Sto. Tomas.

Sa pamamagitan ng panukalang ordinansa, hinihiling ni Wency na bigyan ng taunang supply ng sports equipment ang 140 barangay ng siyudad ng mga sumusunod.

Tatlong bola para sa basketball, tatlong bola para sa volleyball, tatlong volleyball nets, dalawang badminton, dalawang sets ng table tennis, isang table tennis table, dalawang sets ng chess, dalawang timer at dalawang sipa ball.

Hiniling din ni Lagumbay na ang mga sports equipment ay ipamamahagi sa mga barangay officials tuwing unang linggo ng Disyembre sa City Hall. (Kabalitaan, July 24,1993)
