Tribute to Mayor Mel Mathay on his Birthday
(Adapted from Chuang Tsu)

Mel Mathay is indeed a true man of old.
He stands straight and firm and does not waiver
He is of humble mien but is not servile.
He is independent but not stubborn,
open to everything yet makes no boast.
He smiles as if pleased,
responds to things naturally.
His radiance comes from his inner light.
He remains centered even in the company of others.
He is broad-minded as if he agrees with everyone,
high-minded as if beyond influence,
inward-minded as if he would like to withdraw from the world.

He considers the law to be the body of government, due process its wings, knowledge a requirement of the times, and reason a guide for action.
To consider law as the body, one has to be lenient in its execution.
To take due process as the wings is to give people something to follow.
To take knowledge as a requirement of the times is to do things that have to be done.
To consider reason as a guide for action is to be with others on the path upward.

He acts effortlessly, yet people knows he has accomplished so much.

From: TASK FORCE SMILE

To our beloved Mayor,

As a man of action, you have excellently performed in making this city even greater through your benevolent leadership. May the good Lord shower you with more wisdom, strength, good health and happiness through the years to further this cause.

Our sincerest birthday wishes.
