BSP-QC scouts fly PH flag in int'l 'Camporee'

By Rex Arcadio R. San Diego II

THE Philippine flag flew high with other nations' colors in Suncheon, Jeollanam-do, South Korea as a group of Quezon City scouters represented the country in the Namdo International Youth Camporee from Aug. 3 to 8.

The Quezon City Boy Scouts Council group, composed of nine scouts and seven adults, left for South Korea last July 31.

Leading the group were City Councilors Eric Medina and Jorge Banal, who serve as joint contingent chiefs. Councilor Hero Bautista and Emmanuel Castor acted as co-chairpersons of the international committee program.

QC Council-BSP board members engineer Reynaldo Montano and Esperanza Fe Castor-Pangan, Deputy Council Commissioner Esther Hernandez, and Field Scout Executives Bobby Nengasca (District-V) and Marjorie Domingo (Private Schools) completed the advisers' group.

The Quezon City government provided financial support to the participants to the Camporee.

The scouts' group was composed of Grade 7 students from Ateneo de Manila University High School Department and from Ernesto Rondon High School.

They are Amadeus Gabriel Venod, Joseph Enrico Viray, JP Christian Gamolo, Jesus Venancio Viray, Ethan Michael Aguirre, and Ross Steven Uy.
