QC bags Synergia seal

Daily Tribune (Philippines) · 10 Feb 2025 · A8 · JING VILLAMENTE

Quezon City has received the Seal of Good Education Governance from the Synergeia Foundation, recognizing its leadership in advancing quality education in the Philippines.

The award, in partnership with Metro Pacific Investments, Meralco, and mWell, honors local government units that demonstrate visionary leadership, strong community collaboration, and impactful programs that improve learning outcomes.

Quezon City, the largest schools division in the country, serves over 426,000 public elementary and secondary students, highlighting the city's significant role in Philippine education. The recognition reflects both the city's scale and its strategic commitment to inclusive and transformative governance.
