

QC districts get share of real property taxes

By Rio N. Araja

QUEZON City Mayor Herbert Bautista has turned over to the city's 142 barangays their real-property tax share for the 2018's second quarter.

The distribution of real property tax share was organized by the Barangay Operations Center and Community Relations Department in coordination with the treasurer's office.

The city's District 1 got P7.3 million, while District 2 had P9.2 million.

At least P17.8 million went to the District 3, while District 4 ate up P27.5 million.

District 5 got P32.6 million, and P36.3 million went to District 6.

The barangays with the highest share were Socorro with P937,216.32, Bagum-bayan with P755,194.11, South Triangle with P709,502.74, Pinyahan with P664,259.48, Tandang Sora with P657,623.19, Matandang Balara with P654,718.89, Kaligayahan with P631,486.18, Loyola Heights with P612,310.25, Batasan Hills with P608,122.98 and Kaunlaran with P564,451.83.

Bautista said the city government expects barangay officials to allocate their shares to livelihood, education, infrastructure, health and social services.

Meanwhile, the Quezon City Council has passed a resolution requesting the QC Housing, Community Development and Resettlement Department to conduct a census of informal settlers residing in Hilltop Novaliches subdivision's open spaces and also in Barangay Greater Lagro.