THE Quezon City government has commended the singing group Galaw Awit Ngiti Arte Palakpak from the QC Polytechnic University (Ganap- QCPU) for winning three silver medals at the Singapore International Choral Festival 2018.

The recognition was given to the group in a ceremony that followed the August 20 flagraising ceremony.

Ganap-QCPU clinched a silver medal each in the Mixed Voices under 25 category, Folklore Open category, and Musica Sacra Open from July 19 to 22 in the international choral festival held at the National University of Singapore.

According to Alexis Jan Patacsil, artistic director of GanapQCPU, there have been over 60 choral groups from different countries in Asia, Europe, and North America that joined the competition.

Ganap- QCPU, the only theater group in the competition, competed alongside with Los Contantes de Manila and Cordillera Chamber Singers who also bagged awards for the country.
