Quezon City public school teachers will receive more medical, burial and other welfare assistance as the Quezon City Council passed a resolution authorizing Mayor Herbert Bautista to provide P1,500,000.00 financial assistance to the QC Public School Teachers Association (QCPSTA).

City Resolution 7594-2018, introduced by Councilor Raquel Malangen, aims to provide assistance to QCPSTA for their welfare benefit projects, such as the Death Aid Contribution System (DACs), free annual medical check-up, rice subsidy allowance, retired teachers medical assistance program, and medical assistance fund for the seriously ill members.

The QCPSTA is the official organization of teachers and non-teaching personnel under the Division of City Schools-QC with 16,500 members from 143 member-schools.

The Quezon City Public School Teachers Association is an affiliate of both the Alliance of Concerned Teachers (ACT) and the Philippine Public School Teachers Association.
