WHEREAS, it is the declared policy of Quezon City to adopt the principle of consultative and participatory democracy as an effective instrument to promote good governance, and the cooperative sector, a non-governmental organization which has grown in numbers and membership can be a more pro-active participant in the consultative process;

WHEREAS, it is the declared policy of Quezon City to promote a diverse, strong and vibrant economy (Comprehensive Development Plan) and the growing number of cooperatives which are economic enterprises having a strong potential in contributing to the realization of this policy as it plays a vital role in promoting economic prosperity, political unity and social justice within Quezon City. Accordingly, the City Government recognizes the rights of the cooperative sector to initiate and foster within its own ranks Cooperative promotion, organization, training, information gathering, audit and support services, with government assistance where necessary;

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. SP-2364, S-2014, entitled, "An Ordinance creating the Quezon City Small Business Development and Promotions Office (QC-SBDPO), defining its powers and functions, appropriating funds therefor and for other purposes," was enacted to create a new office to effectively and efficiently implement the policies and programs and facilitate the grant of incentives and other privileges under the Quezon City Magna Carta for Micro and Small Business Enterprises;

WHEREAS, there is a need to amend Ordinance No. SP-2364, S-2014, in order to provide services, assist and enhance the viability and growth of five hundred thirty-seven (537) existing and pre-existing cooperatives, which are still growing in numbers in Quezon City;

WHEREAS, the creation of a Cooperative Development and Resource Section under the Quezon City Small Business Development and Promotions Office (QC-SBDPO), registered cooperatives and cooperative organizations in the city, can be assured of necessary assistance and support to enhance their viability as an economic enterprise and social organization and thereby bring about a strong cooperative movement.

NOW, THEREFORE,
