WHEREAS, although there are already national laws and ordinances establishing special lanes and other privileges for PWDs, pregnant women and Senior Citizens, there is still a need to extend additional reasonable accommodation in all private and public establishments in keeping with their needs and concerns;

WHEREAS, this Ordinance seeks to mandate the designation of courtesy seats for the PWDs, pregnant women and senior citizens in all private and public establishments located within the territorial jurisdiction of Quezon City to give them better access, safety and comfort.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED:

SECTION 1. TITLE – This Ordinance shall be known as the “Courtesy Seats for PWDs, Pregnant Women and Senior Citizens Ordinance of Quezon City”.

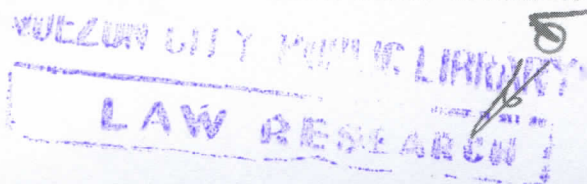

SECTION 2. COVERAGE – All private and public establishments located within the territorial jurisdiction of Quezon City shall be covered by this Ordinance.

SECTION 3. DECLARATION OF POLICY – This Ordinance is consistent with the provision of the Constitution to empower the State to give priority for the needs of the underprivileged sick, elderly, disabled, women and children.

In connection with this policy and pursuant to the Local Government Code of 1991, the City Council enacts this Ordinance to recognize the need to provide courtesy seats for PWDs, pregnant women and Senior Citizens in all private and public establishments located within the territorial jurisdiction of Quezon City, to afford reasonable accommodation to the above-mentioned persons who undoubtedly deserve special treatment, compassion and courtesy due to their condition.

SECTION 4. DEFINITION OF TERMS –

- a. Courtesy Seat Signage – is a sign which indicate that certain seats are priority seats for Persons with Disability, Pregnant Women and Senior Citizens and that others should make such seats available. ✕
