

Belmonte vows transparency in Quezon City government

QUEZON CITY Vice Mayor Joy Belmonte underscored the importance of attaining a transparent government saying that she will uphold accountability and openness in the Quezon City local government if she will be elected as mayor.

According to Belmonte, she aims to achieve good governance in Quezon City wherein government documents and all the city's undertakings are accessible to the public to establish a good feedback mechanism.

"I will fight for our city to achieve good governance," said Belmonte.
