

Belmonte thanks constituents for results of latest MM mayoral survey

QUEZON City Vice Mayor Joy Belmonte thanked her supporters following the publication of results on the latest Metro Manila mayoral survey where she maintained her spot as the top choice for mayorship in Quezon City.

"I am really grateful that our constituents continuously entrust their support to me and to my leadership. I am happy with the survey because it means that voters in Quezon City agree with my platform to bring inclusive development for all in the city," said Belmonte, who is running with slogan dubbed

"Kasama Ka Sa Pag-unlad."

In the non-commissioned survey conducted by RP-Mission and Development Foundation Inc. (RPMDinc) dated April 1 to 8, Belmonte was 26 percent ahead, with 62 percent of votes, over her opponents Rep. Bingbong Crisologo and former Rep. Chuck Mathay with 36 percent, and one percent respectively.

The said survey covered almost 8,000 registered voters representing all demographic lines in different areas in Metro Manila, has a confidence level of 98 percent, and a margin of error of +/-2 percent.
