

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING. Quezon City Mayor Herbert Bautista leads the inauguration of the 4-story, 32-classroom school building at Emilio Jacinto Senior High School in Barangay Pasong Tamo ahead of the opening of classes. It highlights the city government's continuing effort to improve the city's student-to-classroom ratio and address the problem of classroom congestion in the city. To date, Mayor Bautista inaugurated seven additional school buildings in preparation for the opening of classes for school year 2019-2020.
Manny Palmero