

Mayor Joy gives aid to fire victims

QUEZON City Mayor Joy Belmonte through the City Social Services Development Department provided financial assistance to 57 families who were victims of a fire incident in Barangay Bahay Toro on July 5.

Mayor Belmonte kept her promise during her inaugural speech of a faster delivery of assistance to fire victims. Mayor Belmonte said she would establish a system to expedite the distribution of financial assistance within three to five days after validation by social workers from the usual two to six months.

Mayor Belmonte recognizes the importance of faster delivery of services to the residents of Quezon City.

"We decided to exhaust all means to comply with their requests in four days," she said.
