The Quezon City Police District (QCPD) was recognized as this year's best police district in Metro Manila.

The award was presented during the National Capital Region Police Office (NCRPO) Police Service Anniversary celebration at Camp Bagong Diwa, Taguig City, on Tuesday.

The QCPD director, Brig. Gen. Joselito Esquivel Jr. received the award for the city police force. Apart from the Best Police District award, QCPD also won other unit awards including the Highest Performance Rating, Most Number of Surrenderers, Most Number of Arrested Violators of City Ordinance, Best District Mobile Force Battalion, and Best District for Accomplishment in Project Double Barrel.

QCPD's Novaliches Police Station (PS-4) emerged as the Best Numbered Police Station for Accomplishment in Project District Level while Fairview Police Station's (PS-5) Police Community Precinct-2 (PCP-2) was awarded as the Best PCP.

Some QCPD officers and personnel were also recognized, including Col. Arthur Bisnar as the Best Senior Police Commissioned Officer for Operation; Police Major Sandie Caparroso from Batasan Police Station (PS-6) as the Best Junior Police Commissioned Officer for Operation; Police Executive Master Sergeant Jose Amy Yerro from the Criminal Investigation and Detection Unit (CIDU) as the Best Senior Police Non-Commissioned Officer for Operation; Police Corporal Alvin Tarectecan from Tactical Motorized Unit (TMU) as the Best Junior Police Non-Commissioned Officer for Operation; Police Chief Master Sergeant Edmundo Agana Jr. from Anonas Police Station (PS-9) as the Best Senior Police Non-Commissioned Officer for Administration; and Police Staff Sergeant Ronallee Santos from Masambong Police Station (PS-2) as the Best Junior Police Non-Commissioned Officer for Administration.

In a message, Esquivel applauded his men and thanked them for working hard and putting efforts in their operations to maintain Quezon City a safe city.

"These awards are dedicated to the people of Quezon City and to the local government unit, under Mayor Joy Belmonte, for their unending support to the local police force," he said.
