

Mayor Belmonte checks vacant lot in Novaliches for possible public market

Manila Times · 21 Aug 2019 · D3

MAYOR Joy Belmonte checks on a vacant lot in Barangay Sta. Monica in Novaliches which can be potentially developed into a public market and multi-level parking facility.

The Quezon City government is on the lookout for properties that can be developed to address concerns on road congestion. The second Belmonte administration is determined to implement long-term, sustainable solutions to problems hobbling the city's development.
