QUEZON City mayor Josefina “Joy” Belmonte leads the wreath-laying ceremony as the city commemorated the 102nd anniversary of the historical landmark of Barrio Kangkong, now known as Barangay apolonio Samson in Balintawak.

In her speech, she vows to establish a plaza in honor of apolonio Samson’s contributions during the philippine revolutionary movement.

according to Belmonte, it will be the priority of the local government of Quezon Ciyt to build a plaza for apolinario Samson where our students can visit to serve as a reminder that Quezon City has a hero like tandang Sora, andres Bonifacio and Jose rizal who are all nationalists and has a deep love for the country.
