The Quezon City Council passed a resolution commending the 10th anniversary of Ka Eduardo Manalo's elevation as executive minister of the Iglesia ni Cristo (INC). City resolution 7840-2019, introduced by former councilor and now Second District representative Precious Hipolito-Castelo, aims to express the city's commendation to the significant contribution of Ka Eduardo Manalo to the development of the community. Executive Minister Manalo celebrated the milestone on September 7. The QC Council lauded the humanitarian programs and projects of Manalo's administration, including Lin gaps a mama may an and construction of the Philippine arena. "through the leadership of Brother Eduardo, church members became more socially relevant and actively takes part in and supports government-sanctioned programs that shape the community," the resolution reads.
