ISKO ORDERS WEEKLY CLEANUPS; JOY FORMS 'TASK FORCE FOREVER'

Philippine Daily Inquirer · 9 Oct 2019 · A9 · By Nikka G. Valenzuela and Mariejo S. Ramos @Inqmetro

On their 100th day in office, Mayors Francisco "Isko Moreno "Domagoso of Manila and Joy Belmonte of Quezon Cit ysa idt ha tro ad clearing operations in the irrespective a reas would continue despite the fact that the 60-day deadline for the reclamation of all public road sha d already expired.

On Tuesday, Domagoso signed an executive order directing all 896 barangay and city hall offices to conduct weekly cleanups.

Covered by Executi ve O rder No . 43 we r e barangay chairs, heads of several key city of-fices like the Market Administration Office, city hospitals and universities, the Manila De-partment of social Welfare and Development, Manila Barangay Bureau, Parks Develop-ment Office, Department of Public Services and Department of Engineering and Public works.

"All above concerned officials ar e he reby directe d to conduct a once-a-week cleanup drive in the irrespective offices an d ot her facilities and areas within their jurisdiction or unde rt heir car ean d management," the orde rr ead.

Inh is "The Capital Report" before the Mani lac ity Development Council, Domagoso urged barangay officials to set asid ep olitical differences and work together to save the city from urban decay and help it catch up with more developed Metro Mani lac ities.

More walkable spaces

Belmonte, meanwhile, announced in her State of the City address the creation of "Task For ce Forever" that would continue the mandate of creating more walkable spaces by freeing up road sand sidewalks, includi ng s tructures owned by the city and its barangays.

She also appealed to the city council to pass more measures in support of her traffic and transport management initiatives.

Some of her recommendations included ordinances for regulating motorcycle taxis and comprehensive parking, aside from abanon vulcanizing and car repair shops, terminals and similar establishments on major roads.