

QC scholars given digital financial tools

Quezon City Mayor Joy Belmonte (top row, centermost) and PayMaya COO Paolo Azzola (top row, 2nd from right) lead the distribution of Quezon City scholar IDs powered by PayMaya that will allow students to not only conveniently and securely receive their allowance from the local government but also purchase in any Bancnet-accepting merchants as it doubles as a prepaid card. Also in photo are (top row, from left): PayMaya Communities Head Tisha Qunitio, Quezon City Assistant Administrator for Fiscal Affairs Don Francis Javillonar and Scholarship and Youth Development Program Head Maricris Laureta and Quezon City scholars.
