CUT DOWN TO SIZE Quezon City Mayor Joy Belmonte has lifted an order stopping the construction of the MRT 7 Quezon Memorial Circle station after the developers and builders have revised the plans to conform to the approved area for the aboveground parts of the project. Belmonte issued the order after it was found that the project had greatly exceeded the agreed 4,997-square-meter area for the station's floor area. She approved a revised plan reducing the aboveground construction to 426 sq m from almost 11,000 sq m in area and the height to 6 m from 12 m.
