Quezon City Fourth District Councilor Hero Bautista has filed his certificate of candidacy for reelection. Bautista is running again for councilor with the aim of continuing and expanding on his existing projects. 'I find my term as councilor to be very fulfilling. I work with a great team of fellow councilors and my staff is very supportive of my initiatives,' he said. Bautista also shrugged off rumors that he would be running for a higher position for this election year. 'I want to focus on my existing projects. I want to finish them first then I'd pray for guidance regarding the possibility of running for a higher political office in the future,' he added.
