Over 500 small business owners in Quezon City received investment support from the city government under its Small Income Generating Assistance (SIGA) capital program. Mayor Joy Belmonte personally distributed the P5,000 livelihood assistance to the beneficiaries after undergoing verification by the Social Services Development Department (SSDD)

Those who wish to be part of the program may contact the SSDD at 8703-3576.

Meanwhile, the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD)-National Capital Region said it will also distribute cash cards to beneficiaries of the national government's unconditional cash transfer (UCT) program.

The UCT aims to provide cash assistance to poor families to help them cope with the impact of the pandemic and lockdowns.

The DSWD, through its National Household Targeting System for Poverty Reduction information management system, identified the families covered by the program.

In Quezon City, up to 1,637 beneficiaries were included in the list.
