Quezon City Mayor Joy Belmonte has appointed Vice Mayor Gian Sotto to be the acting chief executive until she returns from Spain for an international conference.

Belmonte flew to Spain on official business to serve as a panelist for a conference dubbed “Migrant Workers and Healthcare at the Fast-Track Cities 2022,” which starts today until Oct. 13.

She is also set to receive the “Circle of Excellence Award for the City” in behalf of the local government.

Belmonte appointed Sotto and Councilor Alex Bernard Herrera as acting mayor and vice mayor, respectively, to run the city’s affairs while she is in Spain.
