

PHILIPPINE DAILY INQUIRER

METRO

A22

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 17, 2014

QC, Philippine Bible Society to host fun run

THE QUEZON City Library and Information Center through the support of city officials and the Philippine Bible Society will hold a three-kilometer fun run and "Handwritten Unity Bible" at the Quezon Memorial Circle on Jan. 24, from 5 a.m. to 9 a.m., in celebration of National Bible Week. This is a fundraising event in support of the "May They Be One" Bible campaign to be distributed to five million Filipino poor families. The registration fee is P300 with the registration period from Dec. 10 to Jan. 16, 2015. For inquiries, call Mariza Chico or Marlyn Bautista at 9279834 or 9224060.

Monday, January 24, 2011

P.6

QC hosts National Bible Week

The opening ceremonies of the National Bible Week (NBW) will be hosted by the Quezon City government at the Liwasang Aurora, Quezon City Memorial Circle today with a 12-hour continuous ecumenical public oral reading of the Scriptures.

Speaker Feliciano R. Belmonte will lead the "I Proclaim" ecumenical Bible reading, which will be held from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Organized by the Catholic Bishops' Conference of the Philippines

- Episcopal Commission for the Biblical Apostolate (CBCP-ECBA) and the Philippine Bible Society (PBS), the annual event culminates on Sunday, Jan. 30, with the observance of National Bible Sunday. (Christna Hermoso)

National Bible Week

HON. HERBERT M. BAUTISTA
CITY MAYOR

EMELITA L. VILLANUEVA
CITY LIBRARIAN