WHEREAS, there is a need to resolve the lack of regular salaries and benefits for barangay officials and workers despite their duties and responsibilities in their communities;

WHEREAS, Barangay Officials currently receive simple honoraria for their service, but under the bill, barangay officials will be treated as regular government employees receiving benefits that regular government employees enjoy;

WHEREAS, under the same bill, the Punong Barangay, Members of the Sangguniang Barangay, the Sangguniang Kabataan chairperson, the Barangay Secretary and Barangay Treasurer will be entitled to salaries, emoluments, allowances such as hazard pay, representation and transportation allowance, 13th month pay and other benefits;

WHEREAS, the Proposed Measure further empowers barangays by ensuring the availability of basic services and facilities such as drinking water, transportation, and schools in every barangay;

WHEREAS, the Proposed Bills provided that all public funds from the National Treasury for the maintenance of barangay roads and bridges and similar construction works should also be transferred directly to the barangays' general fund;

WHEREAS, the Bills, that empower every barangay would also be entitled to an equitable share of proceeds derived from the exploitation, utilization, and development of natural resources within its territory;

WHEREAS, the counterpart Senate Bill is still pending at the Senate of the Philippines before it can be translated into a law.
