

- Public buildings

PH Red Cross QC gets new building from city govt

The Manila Times · 25 Apr 2024 · C4

A NEW building for the Philippine Red Cross Quezon City (PRCQC) Chapter was recently inaugurated as the humanitarian organization celebrates its 77th founding anniversary.

Construction of the new building was funded by the local government of Quezon City. The city government turned over a fully furnished three-story building to the PRCQC.

Located inside the compound of the Quezon City Hall, the building has a blood center, command center and ample space for training of Red Cross volunteers. PRCQC Chapter is one of the oldest branches of the Red Cross in the country. A marker was also unveiled.

After the inauguration and blessing, 143 Red Cross volunteers participated in a mass oath-taking at the Liwasang Aurora, Quezon Memorial Circle.