The Quezon City Police District (QCPD) recently concluded its Annual Physical Examination, a key component of the Alagang QCPD Program.

The 3-day event, held at the QCPD Multipurpose Gym, Camp Karingal, saw 1,428 personnel, including non-uniform staff and those aged 40 and above, undergo medical examinations.

QCPD Acting Director P/Col. Melecio Buslig Jr. stressed the importance of regular health check-ups for ensuring the well-being and fitness of police officers as the QCPD's commitment to enhancing the health and productivity of its personnel underscores its dedication to delivering efficient and professional police service.
