The Quezon City Police District (QCPD) successfully concluded its Community Fun Run on Sunday as part of its 85th Founding Anniversary celebration where at least 1,000 individuals, including QCPD personnel, their families and representatives from the Bureau of Jail Management and Penology, Bureau of Fire Protection and Armed Forces of the Philippines, participated in the event held at the QCPD Grandstand in Camp Karingal.

The fun run featured three categories — 9 kilometers, 6 kilometers, and 3 kilometers. Registration fees, which included a singlet, medal, and race bib, were P700, P500 and P350, respectively.

QCPD acting district director Police Colonel Melecio M. Buslig Jr., expressed his gratitude to all participants, especially those from other units and agencies. “Your presence shows your unwavering support for our shared mission to build stronger ties between the police and the community,” he said.
