WHEREAS, the Quezon City Government recognizes the resilience and dedication of solo parents who strive to provide for their families while raising their children on their own;

WHEREAS, Republic Act No. 11861, otherwise known as the Expanded Solo Parents Welfare Act, affirms the State's policy to support and empower solo parents and promote the welfare and development of their children;

WHEREAS, many solo parents face challenges in pursuing traditional employment due to the need to balance work responsibilities with childcare and household duties;

WHEREAS, the growth of the digital economy has created new opportunities for remote and home-based employment, allowing individuals to earn income while working from home;

WHEREAS, digital work opportunities such as virtual assistance, online freelancing, digital marketing, e-commerce management, online tutoring, and other technology-based services can provide flexible livelihood options for solo parents;

WHEREAS, providing training programs on digital skills can equip solo parents with the knowledge and competencies needed to participate in the digital workforce;

WHEREAS, partnerships among government agencies, training institutions, and private sector organizations can help expand access to digital work training and employment opportunities for solo parents in Quezon City;

WHEREAS, empowering solo parents with digital livelihood opportunities can help improve their economic stability while allowing them to remain actively present in the lives of their children.

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED, to encourage, as it does hereby encourage, government agencies, training institutions, and private sector partners in Quezon City to promote digital work opportunities and training programs for Solo Parents.

RESOLVED FINALLY, that copies of this Resolution be furnished to the Public Employment Service Office (PESO), the Social Services Development Department (SSDD), relevant training institutions, and other concerned offices for their information and appropriate action.

ADOPTED: May 20, 2026.
