P1M frontliners' lift

Daily Tribune (Philippines) · 8 May 2020 · A3 · NEIL ALCOBER

A teachers' group has raised a total of P1,068,410 from its donation drive dubbed as "Ambagan ng mga Guro" to help and support frontliners fighting the coronavirus pandemic in the country.

The Quezon City Public School Teachers Association, which started the donation drive on 1 April, used the funds to purchase 1,120 personal protective equipment, 1,450 N95 masks, 1,154 face shields, 50 gallons of alcohol, 2,600 surgical gloves and 2,610 surgical masks for 16 hospitals in the National Capital Region.

Among the recipients of the drive's proceeds are the Philippine Heart Center, Lung Center of the Philippines, Novaliches District, Quezon City General Hospital, East Avenue, Medical Center, Rosario Maclang-Bautista General Hospital, New Era Hospital, Philippine Children's Medical Center, Rizal Medical Center and Philippine Orthopedic Center.