QUEZON City 5th District Rep. Patrick Michael Vargas has won another term in the House of Representatives.

Vargas, who got over 102,000 votes, was proclaimed winner by the Commission on Elections.

"Vargas attributed his victory to the strong support from the residents of Novaliches and the Vargas family's 15-year legacy of public service in the district," a statement from his office said.

His brother, former representative Alfred Vargas, "also achieved success in the same election, securing a seat again as councilor in the" fifth district, the statement said.

Vargas, in a post on his Facebook page, thanked everyone who supported him.

"Makakaasa po kayo na lalo nating paghuhusayan ang ating serbisyo at tungkuling maging representante ng ating mahal na Novaliches," he said.

Representative Vargas defeated several others, including Rose Nono Lin, who garnered over 91,000 votes.
