BOOK TALK SOCIETY OF THE PHILIPPINES, INC. (BTSPI)

This organization of professional librarians, information professionals, library educators and book enthusiasts was born on October 10, 2004. It hopes to be incorporated the soonest time as possible.

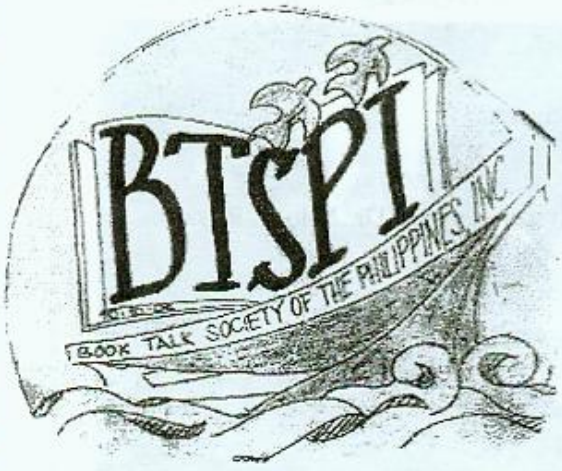

Its CIDI Objectives are:

C - create and sustain an environment of sharing and talking about books ofenduring value; even reaffirming favorable insights and hindsight about those which have already been shared and talked about;

I - initiate and continue a climate of discussion where authors and readers analyze their crafts and those of others;

D - develop and maintain an atmosphere of healthy, desirable criticism, interpretation and assessment among avid readers; and,

I - instill and promote an intellectual ambiance to stimulate and encourage the Filipino to read and write as he/she continues to strongly support Philippine books and Filipiniana materials.

As the objectives are attained, the organization continues to sail and sell to many as many good books as possible and exchange ideas worth talking about.

The two doves represent the beauty and joy shared by both the writer's creativity and the reader's reaction to the formers work.

The noble task in general goes on and on, as the "balangay" courageously sails on and on too, as long as the "galleon trade" barters tons of ideas and ideals just enough to shape the culturally nourished and globally sensitive mind.

A NEW LIBRARY ORGANIZATION IS BORN

Mula sa Tanggapan ng Pangulo, Pamantasang Normal Ng Pilipinas

Bilang Pangulo ng Pamantasang Normal ng Pilipinas, ako'y nagagalak dahil naging kabahagi ang Kagawaran ng Agham Pang-Aklatan at Pang-Impormasyon ng PNU sa taunang pagdiriwang ng Buwan ng Serbisyong Pang-Aklatan at Pang-Impormasyon lalung-lalo na sa pagdiriwang din naman ng Linggo ng mga Aklat (Nobyebre 24-30, 2005).

Mas higit na ako'y nagagalak dahil nakaisang-taon na ang Book Talk Society of the Philippines. Hangad ko ang lahat nang ikabubuti ng bawa't isa na mayroong simpatiya sa natatanging layunin ng samahang ito. May ibig sabihin ang Book Week Theme sa taong ito at sa mga darating pang panahon: Ang kultura ng pagbabasa ay ating linangin sa t'wina.

Tayo'y sumama sa BTSP. Ating bigyan-daan ang mga gawaing may kinalaman sa pagbabasa ng magagandang aklat lalung-lalo na kung ang mga ito'y sulat-Pinoy at gawang-Pinoy. Akma lamang na bukod sa gawaing pag-usapan ang ating sariling aklat, napapanahon na marahil na papurihan ng mga librarian at mga edukador ng Library and Information Science ang mga natatanging manunulat ng ating bansa. Sa pagkakataong ito ay bibigyang-parangal ng BTSP pati na rin ng Philippine Association of Teachers of Library and Information Science (PATLS) at ng Philippine Librarians Association, Inc. National Book Week Extension and Book Talk Services Committee 2005 ang dalawang kapwa magigiting na manunulat na sina: Prop. Randy David at Dr. Emerita Quito sa larangan ng Sosyolohiya at Pilosopiya. Ako'y kapanalig sa mga ganitong uri ng gawain.

Tanggapin ninyo ang aking mainit na pagbati na kumakatawan sa kabuuan at nasasakupang komunidad ng Pamantasang Normal ng Pilipinas maging ang mga sangay nito: Alicia, Isabela; Lunsod ng Cadiz (Negros Occidental); Prosperidad (Agusan del Sur); at, Lopez Quezon. Maligayang Unang Anibersaryo sa BTSP!

Para sa mga may Mahal sa Buhay na mga Prisonero't Prisonera.
(Isang alay-tula ni: Mike M. Cobaria)

Kung nakulong man si kuya,ate,ama,o si ina
At naging mailap ang mapagbirong hustisya
Idalangin mo sa Diyos, kay Kristo'y lumapit ka
Dahil nasa kanya ang susi ng pag-asa.

Huwag mong hayaang mawalan ng langis
Ang namumukod- tanging LAMPARA
Tumayo nang buong giting dahil katabi lang Siya
Pagsubok ay harapin; lahat: ialay sa Kanya.

Ang LAMPARA'Y siyang tanging ilaw
Na sadyang kakaiba
Ningas nito'y nalulugod
Sa bawat kilos na maganda.

Nagtuturong kailanma'y
di dapat maging pabigat sa iba
KISLAP NG DUNONG NIYA'y
Nagbibigay-lakas at sigla;
Tunay na walang kapara.
Ah! LAMPARA!

ASOCIACION DE DAMAS DE FILIPINAS, INC.

History

One day in September, 1913, a group of civic-sprinted women gathered to make a momentous decision on a problem which was challenging their humanitarian spirit. These women were the wives of the first members of the Philippine Columbian Club who, because of their honored standing in contemporary society, could well have regarded with complete detachment the cares and worries of their less unfortunate kind. But these women of ideals, of principles, of high morality, were cognizant of their responsibilities as citizens and members of a civilized society.

Aware of the crying needs of many and unfortunate mother, of the helpless of many a motherless babe, of the bewilderment of a hungry and unclothed child, these women bonded together and resolved to unite their efforts to lend help to these unfortunates. Thus, was born the Philippine Columbian Feminine Extension which later became the ASOCIACION de DAMAS de FILIPINAS, INC.

The Asociacion started auspiciously under the able leadership of Dr. Honoria Acosta Sison, its first lady president. Like all beginnings, the first year was beset with many difficulties. There were so many things to do, but very little money to spend. However, Dr. Sison and the members of the association proved equal to task, and, and with the little that they had, the organization moved on to accomplish its avowed purpose and mission. By 1916, during the incumbency of Mrs. Francisca T. Benitez, its activities had broadened in scope.....

In 1990, Ms. Ma. Victoria Madrigal Vasquez recommended that there should be a resource generating arm to complement the required support funds of the Settlement as well as to initiate worthwhile projects. Thus, Fundacion de Damas de Filipinas, Inc. was established. Since its establishment up to the present Fundacion is headed by its President, Mrs. ELENITA O. NOLASCO, who happened to be a Past President of Asociacion de Damas de Filipinas, Inc.

A very gruesome moment in the history of the association happened unexpectedly on December 3, 1998 at around 1:30 a.m. when a big fire gutted the then seventy-two (72) year old building (principally made of wood), where 28 people perished (5 adults and 23 wards). Visibly moved, President Joseph Ejercito Estrada and his high school classmates in Ateneo lost no time in effecting the restoration of the building in 45 days, which was inaugurated significantly on February 14, 1999, a Valentine's Gift. The inauguration was highlighted with President Estrada's initial donation of P1M.

The ADFI, as it is now and for the future, vows to continue the good deeds implanted by the association's founders and nurtured by the incumbents so that history can be further enriched and enhanced by realizing ADFI's objectives deemed of paramount duty to the country.

We are grateful to the BTSP Board for having chosen ADFI as their focus of attention for their outreach program in celebration of National Book Week, 2005. We are specifically looking forward to the program to be held on November 25, 2005 at the National Library for the Book Week Program proper coinciding with the celebration of BSTP's 1st Anniversary where BTSP-PNU Chapter will get inducted. We are with you in the aspirations you hope to attain. Thank you for giving us hope that you will help us organize our library. Special thanks to Mr. Mark Oliver dela Cuesta, Prof. Mike Cobaria, Prof. Erlinda F. Flores & Prof. Estrella L. Peña.

MESSAGE

It has always been a pleasure to be a part of a journey which seems not to end, but rather goes on in an ever-evolving human noblest desire: discovery of treasures within each page of good book.

I am happy to be a member of the BTSP even during its conceptualization and conceiving stage, but then, let MMCLAPI extend its congratulations for BTSP'S 1st Anniversary.

His heart is so full of nothing more than claiming that "Great is God's faithfulness" welcoming even a local language translation of a song that carries the same title which he is bound to master even if he is not an Ilonggo. It goes this way:

DAKUNG KATUTUM MO O DIYOS

Dakung katutum Mo O Dios Amay ko
Way landong sang pagbalhin sa Imo
Ang Imo kalooy nagapadayon
Subong anay Amo Ikaw karon.

Angtig palanggas kag ang tig-alani
A adlaw bulan
Kag mga bitu-on naga buylog
Sla sa pagpanaksi dakung gugma
Sila sa pagpanaksi, dakung gugma Mo
Kag katutum.

Koro:
Dakung katutum Mo
Dakung katutum Mo
Adlaw adlaw kalooy mo bag-o
Gin hatag Mo ang kinahanglan nakon
Dakung katutum Mo O Dios sa amon.

The last Book Talk Activity co-sponsored with the Association of Teachers of Library & Information Science was featured with discussions focused on two books: Learning to Do (2005) by Unesco International Centre for Technical and Vocational Education and Training (An Integrated Approach to Incorporating Values Education in the classroom setting) and that of Atty.
