WHEREAS, Resolution No. SP-7138, S-2017 entitled "A Resolution urging the City Government to strengthen its implementation of the Early Childhood Care and Development Curriculum with emphasis in the achievement of Reading Readiness Skills of Children in Public Day Care Centers" aims to encourage our Day Care Centers to strengthen its early reading program through the appropriate reading materials, conducive learning environment, parent/guardian participation, and teachers who are willing to help children imbibe good reading skills;

WHEREAS, the City Government, pursuant to Ordinance No. SP-2180, S-2011, also known as "An Ordinance enacting the Quezon City Children's Code of 2012", endeavours to invest its resources towards attaining the best quality of education for our children through ECCD and the Basic Literacy Enhancement Program (BLEP).

NOW, THEREFORE,

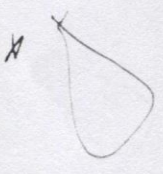

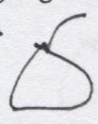

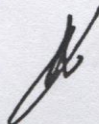

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF QUEZON CITY IN REGULAR SESSION ASSEMBLED:

Section 1. TITLE - This Ordinance shall be known as "The Barangay Day Care Center Enhancement Program of Quezon City or the "BDCCEP Ordinance"

Section 2. DECLARATION OF POLICY - The City, being the duty bearer and main implementer, the decentralized actor in the claim to right of education of its local constituents must therefore give high regards with the children as the hope of our next generation.

It is the policy of the Quezon City Government to provide its constituents with basic educational materials in order to alleviate the financial burden on the part of the indigent families who are bonafide residents of Quezon City. It shall promote the right of every individual to relevant quality of education regardless of age, sex and economic status. The City shall promote and maintain equality of access to education as well as to basic educational materials given to the barangay day care students.

Section 3. OBJECTIVE - The main and primary objective of this Ordinance is to ensure that the young children up to Four (4) years old are adequately prepared for the formal learning system that begins at kindergarten. This covers the children that attends barangay day care centers within the territorial jurisdiction and bonafide residents of Quezon City.

Day care service addresses the needs in the crucial stages of a child's growth. By the age of five (5), a child's brain has already grown to ninety (90%) per cent of its adult weight and much of the way he/she envisions and interact with the world as to how it has been shaped, thus, the child's formative years and learning capacity, personal and social interaction will lead into adulthood.

While parents have the primary responsibility to provide for their children's physical, emotional, psychological, mental and social needs, barangay day care service aims to supplement the inability of some parents to provide their children with the proper care and home environment.

Specifically, the Day Care Service aims to help the child:

- (a) Become physically fit through proper care and nutrition;
- (b) Develop self-confidence, self-statement and self-discipline;
- (c) Relate well with others;
- (d) Enhance the physical-motor, socio-emotional, cognitive, language, psychological and spiritual development of young children;
- (e) Develop strong spiritual, socio-cultural and nationalistic values as well as positive attitudes towards family, community and society in general;
- (f) Be protected from all forms of neglect, abuse, cruelty and exploitation.

Section 4. DEFINITION OF TERMS - For the purpose of this Ordinance, the following terms shall mean the following;
