WHEREAS, the first and second week of August 2012 saw the onset of the southwest monsoon and brought torrential rains to most part of the country particularly Cebu, Iloilo, Zamboanga, and the National Capital Region;

WHEREAS, the onslaught of this torrential rainfall and flooding totally washed out residences and forced families to seek refuge in evacuation facilities to ensure their safety;

WHEREAS, the destruction to property, even the loss of life, brought about by the southwest monsoon especially those residing within the adjacent vicinity of rivers, creeks and other waterways justify the grant of Calamity Loans to facilitate the return to normalcy of employees of the government;
