We celebrate this year's 73RD Founding Anniversary of Quezon City with the theme: "Sa QC, Lahat Panalo!"

This year's Foundation Day activities revolve around the many success stories that have in so many ways contributed to the continuing progress and sustained development of Quezon City. We have set our sights at making Quezon City the Philippines' Global Growth Generator. Towards this end, we shall harness the potentials of our residents and investors in bringing Quezon City a rung higher in the field of competitiveness through excellence.

The organizing committee has lined up a series of activities for the month to highlight the transformation that Quezon City has undergone through the years – removing our residents from harm's way, providing decent and affordable human settlements for qualified urban poor residents, enhancing local government performance through accountability and transparency, mitigating the incidence of disaster, increasing our productivity and attractiveness as an investment haven and promoting the city as an emerging tourism hub. All of these are directed towards one goal – we are all champions and winners in one city, Quezon City!

As we move closer to the 75TH founding anniversary of Quezon City, we continue to reaffirm our commitment to strive harder and leap even higher to bring Quezon City to greater heights of success. MESSAGE

Warmest greetings to the people of Quezon City!

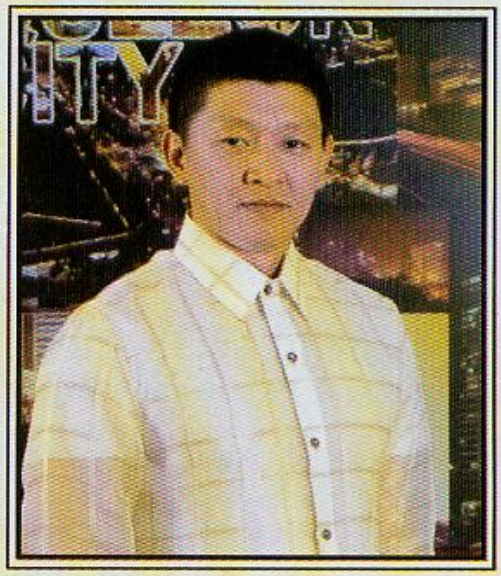

For 73 years, the people of Quezon City, through the leadership of the local government, have withstood challenges brought about by our changing environment and changing times. If not for your indomitable spirit and resolute belief in our city's capabilities, we would not be where we are now. Today, Quezon City is the residence of choice of many Filipinos and the cradle of Filipino culture in an urbanized setting.

I therefore take this opportunity to congratulate the people of Quezon City and our hard working local government officials and employees for standing up to the challenge of eradicating poverty, consolidating participation in government projects, and providing a better quality of life for all.

I pray that the citizens of QC will continue to persevere in making our city the ideal home we envision it to be, so our children and our grandchildren could truly say, "Dito sa Quezon City, panalo ang lahat!"

Again congratulations and mabuhay tayong lahat!

MESSAGE

On behalf of the members of the 73RD Foundation Day Organizing Committee, I extend warm greetings to our fellow workers for the government and neighbors in Quezon City as we celebrate another successful chapter in the evolving history of Quezon City.

This year's Foundation Day activities has been extended to cover the month of October in order to drum up enthusiasm and support among the many stakeholders, partners and residents who have in so many and in different ways been part of the sustained growth of our city.

This year's Foundation Day theme revolves around the achiever's spirit of the people and residents of Quezon City. We pay tribute to the relentless efforts of those who immeasurably contribute to the near completion of the social fabric that makes Quezon City a progressive city.

As a bureaucracy, Quezon City can not do it alone. It survives on strategic partnership with the cross section of her residents and stakeholders in order to cope with the demands of managing and ensuring that social and economic infrastructures are in place and working. We are committed to support the advocacy of Mayor Herbert M Bautista for the continuing development and growth of Quezon City.

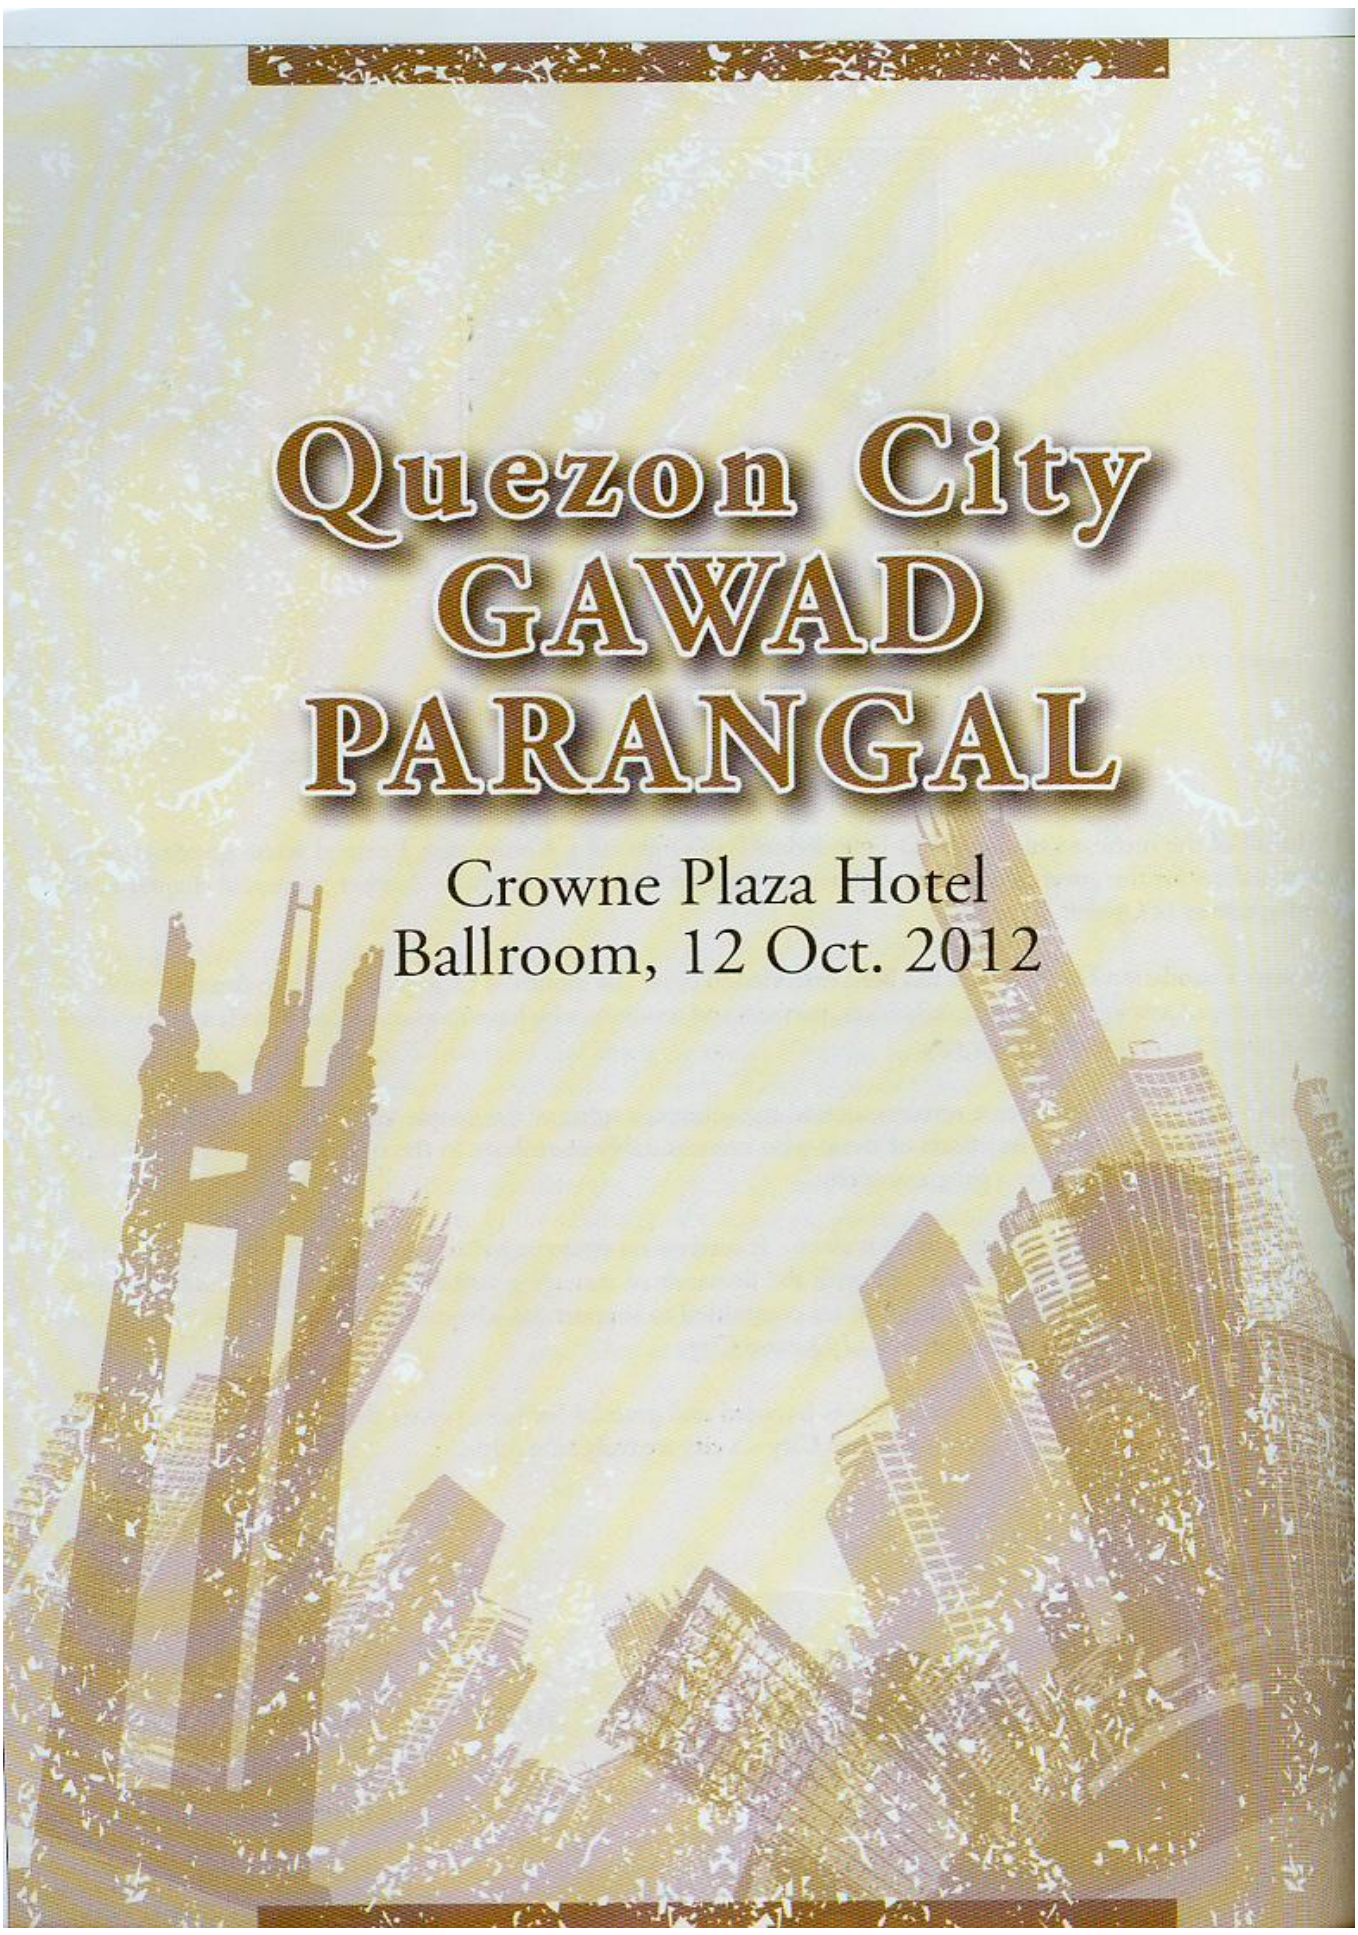

The Foundation Day Organizing Committee is honored and grateful for being given the opportunity to serve and become agents of the transformation of Quezon City – a city we truly take pride in.

AS QUEZON CITY MOST OUTSTANDING CITIZEN

HON. HELENA Z. BENITEZ

LIFE-TIME EDUCATOR, ENVIRONMENTALIST, DIPLOMAT/ INTERNATIONALIST, LEGISLATOR (SENATOR AND MAMBABATAS), PATRON OF CULTURE AND THE ARTS, CIVIC LEADER, WOMEN'S AND SENIOR CITIZENS RIGHTS ADVOCATE, YOUTH AND CHILD WELFARE ADVOCATE – A MOST HONORED STATESWOMAN

The Hon. Helena Z. Benitez, HZB, or "TITA HELEN" to friends and family, 98 years old, is durable and still most active in pursuing her advocacies and causes, most especially education and environment, two of her most cherished causes and for which she is best well-known nationally and internationally.

She wishes to be known as the "LIFE-TIME EDUCATOR." She is still Chairperson of the Board of Trustees of Philippine Women's University founded by her parents. She authored, as Senator, legislations on out-of-school youth that led to establishment of the National Manpower and Youth Council (NMYC), the forerunner of today's TESDA. She pushed for inclusion of Home Economics and Environmental education courses in colleges and universities.

She has been a pioneering, innovative, visionary and strategic thinker and advocate registering many "Firsts" in a number of areas of national and global concern among which are: First Asian, Filipina and Woman President of the Governing Council of the UN Environmental Program (UNEP, 1975); first Filipina, first Asian and first Woman international academic and legislative leader inducted into the Democracy Hall of Fame (2003); first Filipina Chair of the UN Commission on the Status of Women (1969); first Filipina and first woman member of the Board of International Association of Universities; first Filipina to be conferred the Presidential Award of the Order of Sikatuna, Rank of Datu, among others. She is the Founder of the First Filipino Dance Company, The Bayanihan Folk Dance Company.

As environmentalist, she worked with the likes of British environmentalist and development economist, Lady Barbara Ward, American cultural anthropologist Margaret Mead, and Maurice Strong, first Director General of UNEP. The initiatives of these three pioneers became the basis of the UN's environmental program. It could then be said, that "She was there long before "Sustainable Development" became fashionable."

As legislator/senator and parliamentarian, she authored and sponsored, among others, the National Building Code (RA 6541), Municipal Forests and Watersheds Act (RA 5752), Philippine Eagle Protection Act (RA 6147), Tamaraw Sanctuaries Act (RA 6148), and of course, the legislation on the Out-of-School Youth and the NMYC.

The Hon. Helena Z. Benitez, is indeed, the present true personification of the ideals and virtues of Quezon City's own National Heroine, TANDANG SORA, a most fitting First Awardee of Quezon City's Tandang Sora Gawad Parangal Award, highlighting the Bicentennial celebration this year of our national heroine.

Himlayang Pilipino, Inc., conceived of a memorial park to be more than just a burial ground but a shrine park and outdoor museum dedicated to symbolize the Filipino spirit and reflect the history and culture of the country.

It has offered the Memorial Park as repository of the remains of Tandang Sora for over 40 years, and of General Emilio Jacinto. Displaying, among others the sculptural arts of Florentino Caedo, among others, the Park immortalizes the fine artistic images of heroic personages of history such as Gabriela Silang and Teresa Magbanua, and the tableau of the Cry of Pugad Lawin. Of interest as well, are the arresting sculptural masterpieces depicting the legend of Malakas and Maganda, and of Florante and Laura.

Of significance during this Bicentennial Celebration of Tandang Sora, Himlayang Pilipino, Inc. with much gracious generosity, allowed the exhumation and transfer of the remains of Tandang Sora from the Himlayang Memorial Park to the newest national shrine in Banlat, the Tandang Sora National Shrine. Thus, two shrines are now dedicated to the honor of our National Heroine, Tandang Sora, the Banlat shrine and the Himlayang Memorial Park.

Himlayang Pilipino, Inc., was thoughtful as well to have honored several outstanding Filipinos with its own Tandang Sora Awards. It is itself a successful businesss enterprise and continues to grow, a fact well deserved by a beautiful and spacious memorial to Filipino Heroes.

She was the first Filipina singer ever admitted at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia after her early musical education at the Philippine Women's University. She has starred in classical operas, staged here and abroad, like Die Fledermaus, Hansel and Gretel, Lucia de Lammermoor, La Traviata, Die Entifuhrung ausdem Serail, Tamura's The Magic Staff, and Le Nozze di Figaro. For her graduation recital , sang an aria from Strauss' Ariadne auf Naxos, an aria which to this date has never been sung by another Philippine artist.

But it is as an incomparable star in Filipino operas that undoubtedly established her as an honored Philippine opera, musical and dramatic artist and thus helped raise the status and quality of the opera genre in Philippine stage musical history. Among the Pilipino operas she starred in are: As Sisa in De Leon's Noli Me Tangere, Santos' Mapulang Bituin, Pajaro's Binhi ng Kalayaan, and Kasilag's Dularawan, and on tour abroad(a number of US cities, she performed in zarzuela Walang Sugat, soloist in Ana Maria (1991), and on Wings of Song (on Philippine History), and as Anastacia in Mayo…Bisperas ng Liwanag. She wrote librettos as well for outstanding Filipino opera composers. And in a pioneering and gracious initiative, directed operas for free during a period when not many were interested in operas.

FIDES CUYUGAN ASENSIO has assured that her legacy and inspiration continues on to benefit future generations, by among others; forming the Music Foundation of the Philippines in 1986, to train classical performers, serving as Chairman of Voice and Music Theater Department of UP, continuing to teach, and has been honored by UP with the title "Professor Emeritus." She continues to host the TV series, "A Little Night of Music."

THEREFORE, IN RECOGNITION, QUEZON CITY AWARDS
